What I like about my school ... Everybody listens  I like school trips because they are really fun.  Because I have a lovely teacher named Mrs Hooper and lovely friends.  I like using the BeeBots in computing.  Everybody treats me fairly.  I like learning because I learn so many new things at school.  I learn lots at school.  Our teachers help us to be smart.  I like all of the different after school clubs.  All the lovely teachers and children.  The woodland skills centre
What I would like to change at my school ... Make the time at school longer.  I would not want to change anything because I like my school how it is.  More games at break times.  To have more AR books.  To have different food at lunchtime like food from India.  I wouldn't like to change my school.  I would not like to change anything at school because I love it all.  Nothing because it is just perfect.  More teachers  To have a class pet
Overall Conclusions: ALL children know the expectation that children have to behave well.  The children have trusted adults at the school and feel safe.  The children value the extra-curricular opportunities and trips that the school offers. Next Steps:

As a class, discuss what it means to be friendly and how we can develop this, both individually and as a class.

Review with the children different strategies for what to do when they get stuck, outside of English and Maths lessons.
